Accord/Henkel Team Delivers Athletic Retail Winner

Accord Architecture and Henkel Construction Company have teamed again with North Iowa Growth to bring another new retailer to North Iowa. MC Sports is the newest addition to the Willow Creek Crossing Shopping Center on Mason City's west side. This will be the sixth time Henkel and Accord have provided complete design-build construction services for a North Iowa Growth project.

MC Sports is a full-line, full-service, sporting apparel and equipment retailer. Founded in 1946, MC Sports has grown to over 65 stores in six states. Their new Mason City location will cover fourteen thousand square feet of space and will include apparel and equipment for all major indoor and outdoor sports including hunting, fishing, hiking, and skiing.

Steve Scott, Lead Developer for North Iowa Growth, was quoted saying, "Project after project, we have been pleased with the results we achieve working with Henkel and Accord as a design-build team. We have more to do...we will definitely be working with Henkel and Accord again."

Henkel and Accord started designing the project in November of 2006. Fixtures will be complete and MC Sports will open for business in mid-March only four months later.
